

Our Vision To Be the Best in EMS

COORDINATED CARE

Owned by

2

local
healthcare systems

Closely connected to

7

area hospitals

1
medical director,
ensuring consistent,
quality care

REGIONAL SERVICE

Serving 260,000
people in 1,200
square miles of northeastern Wisconsin

21,000
calls in 2015

Closest available
ambulance response
anchored by 10 stations

Partner with 26
first responder groups

A STRONG TEAM

Fleet of 17
ambulances

Paramedics, with 1,000+
hours of training each

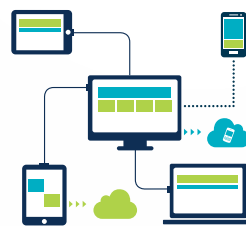

Meet or beat
national benchmark
response
times

Carry and administer
30+
medications

600 patient encounters
annually for each paramedic

Advanced technology for optimal care and safety

COMMUNITY FOCUSED

Regional
911
dispatch
coordinator

EMS
clinical teaching site
6
technical colleges

2
bike
response teams

Placed more than 350
AEDs in the Fox Cities
through the community-based
HeartStart program

Emergency
response training in 3
areas: CPR/AED,
First Aid and
Bloodborne Pathogens,
Oxygen
Administration